POLICY and PROCEDURES

Title	Effective Date	Revision Date	Pages
NO. 707 SUSPENSION OF STUDENTS	February 13, 1996	May 9, 2000 January 29, 2002 December 2018	8

It is the policy of the Tri-County Regional Centre for Education to follow the Education Act (Suspension of Student, Section 122, 123, 124, 125, and 126, p. 31 and 32, 2000) when it becomes necessary to suspend a student from school and authorize all principals to follow the procedures exactly as outlined in the Act with the exception of 125(a) and 125(2) and Appendix “A” 16 and 18 which have been changed with the approval of the Department of Education. Further, the Provincial School Code of Conduct Policy is to be followed prior to issuance of any student suspension.

PROCEDURE Under Policy 707

Where a student enrolled in a public school is persistently disobedient or defiant or conducts themselves in a manner likely to affect injuriously the proper conduct of the school or the welfare or education of other students enrolled in the school, the principal, or the person in charge of the school, may suspend the student for a period of not more than five school days.

- 122
- (1) When a student is suspended pursuant to Section 122 the principal or other person in charge of the school shall immediately notify, in writing, the student, the student’s teachers, the Regional Centre for Education and the student’s parents of the reasons for the suspension.
 - (2) The student or the student’s parents may request a review of the suspension pursuant to Section 122 by the Regional Centre for Education within three school days of receiving the notice pursuant to subsection (1).
 - (3) The Regional Centre for Education shall
 - a. confirm the suspension under Section 122; or
 - b. order that the suspension be revoked and that the suspension be removed from the record of the student.

PROCEDURE Under Policy 707 Cont'd

- 123 (1) Where the student is suspended pursuant to Section 122 and the principal is of the view that the student should be suspended for a period greater than ten (10) school days, the principal may in writing, make a recommendation with reasons to the Regional Centre for Education that the student be suspended for a period greater than five school days.
- (2) When a recommendation is made pursuant to subsection (1), the Regional Centre for Education shall immediately notify, in writing, the student's parents of the principal's recommendation and reasons.
- (3) Within seven days of having received the recommendation of the principal under subsection (1), the Regional Centre for Education shall
- a. dismiss the principal's recommendation; or
 - b. extend the suspension of the student for a period of greater than five school days.
- (4) Where the suspension of a student begins within two months of the end of the school academic year, the period of time for which a Regional Centre for Education may extend the suspension under subsection (3) may include a portion of the next academic year.
- (5) The Regional Centre for Education shall notify the student, the parents of the student, the student's teachers, the principal or person in charge of the school of its decision under subsection (3) within three days of the meeting at which the decision was made.
- (6) Where the Regional Centre for Education decides under subsection (3) to extend the suspension of the student, the Regional Centre for Education shall include in its notice under subsection (5)
- a. the period for which the student is to be further suspended;
 - b. the reasons for the decision to further suspend the students; and
 - c. the right of the student and of the student's parents to appeal the decision.
- (7) When a student or the parent of a student has been notified of the suspension of the student pursuant to (5), the student or the parent may, within seven days of receiving such notice, appeal the suspension to the Regional Centre for Education.
- (8) The Regional Centre for Education shall, upon receipt of a notice of appeal pursuant to subsection (7)
- a. immediately notify the parent of the student and the student of the time and place of the hearing of the appeal and the right of the student or parent, or both, to appear in person with or without counsel;

PROCEDURE Under Policy 707 Cont'd

- b. within ten days of receipt of the notice of appeal, hold a hearing and confirm, revoke, or vary the decision of the Regional Centre for Education.

(9) Within three clear days of the hearing, the Regional Centre for Education shall notify the student, the student's parent, the student's counsel, the student's teachers and the principal or person in charge of the school of its decision, which decision shall be final and binding.

124 (1)* The powers and duties of the Regional Centre for Education set out in subsections 123(3) and 124(3) may be performed

- a. if so directed by the Regional Centre for Education, by one or more committees consisting of the Regional Executive Director of Education and two Tri-County Regional Centre for Education members of the Regional Centre for Education, one of whom shall act as chair of the committee;
- b. if so directed by the Regional Centre for Education, by the school advisory council of the school or a committee of the school advisory council;
- c. with approval of the Minister, by one or more committees of persons designated by office or named by the Regional Centre for Education.

(2) The power and duties of the Regional Centre for Education set out in subsection 124(8) may be performed, if so directed by the Regional Centre for Education, by one or more committees consisting of the Regional Executive Director of Education and two members of the Regional Centre for Education, one of whom shall act as chair of the committee.

125 Where a student is suspended for more than ten school days, the Regional Centre for Education, in consultation with the student's parent, shall make every reasonable effort to provide alternative arrangements for the education of the student, in accordance with the regulations.

* In the case of the Tri-County Regional Centre for Education only, and with the approval of the Minister of Education, if the School Advisory Council has not assumed the responsibility of student suspensions as designated in Section 125(b) of the Education Act, 2000, the Regional Centre shall convene a Review Committee comprising of

- Two Coordinators and at least one additional Coordinator or Consultant.

 The Appeal Committee shall consist of the Regional Executive Director of Education and the Director of Programs and Student Services or designate.

PROCEDURE Under Policy 707 Cont'd

A student who is suspended will make arrangements for obtaining any schoolwork assigned during the period of the suspension. The school will ensure that the work is readily available for the student on a daily basis.

Following a suspension, the returning student will be given the opportunity to complete any assignments, tests, projects, etc., that may have taken place or been due during the period of suspension. The teacher may decide to drop the mark of the missed work in the calculation of the final mark.
